Historical U.S. Counties Chrome extension

Genealogy lovers: let this FREE tool do the location work for you as you search on Ancestry & FamilySearch!

While searching on Ancestry or FamilySearch, the free Historical U.S. Counties Auto-Checker extension for Google Chrome* automatically checks that the county existed in the year you are searching.

It also checks for valid places, warns of boundary changes, and links to historical county boundaries on Google Maps for the place and years you are searching!

Install for free today and never let an ancestor fall off the map again!

Install
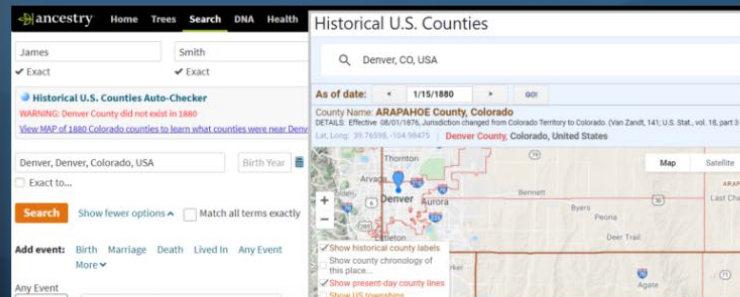

U.S. county boundaries have changed over 17,600 times since America was settled in colonial times. Don't sabotage your search for ancestors by not knowing the correct county for the historical years you are researching.

Tips for image collections

TIPS!

Look through indexes first, if any

The page number in the index rarely matches the image number.

Begin with date of the event (birth, marriage, death) working forward in time.

If the event is not there, try a few years before or after.

Tips for image collections

TIPS!

Take notes or use a research log
