History of Voting in the United States

- February 3, 1870: The 15th Amendment to the United States Constitution prohibited the federal government and each state from denying a citizen the right to vote based on that citizen's "race, color, or previous condition of servitude."
- 1890s-1960s: Jim Crow Laws restricted many African-American men from voting.
 - Poll taxes
 - Literacy tests
 - Document requirements
- Grandfather clause for anyone who voted prior to 1867 – didn't have to pay poll tax or take literacy test

History of Voting in the United States

- August 18, 1920: Women in the US were granted the right to vote by the 19th Amendment.
 - The amendment was first introduced in Congress in 1878
 - Nine western states adopted woman suffrage legislation by 1912
 - New York adopted woman suffrage in 1917
 - Tennessee became the 36th state to ratify the amendment on August 18, 1920
- August 6, 1965: Voting Rights Act passed prohibiting racial discrimination in voting.

Poll Tax Records - Alabama

- Poll taxes were assessments made on all residents living in an area.
- Most registered voters were required to pay this tax prior to being eligible to vote.
- In some areas there were grandfather rules that exempted people who had voted prior to 1867.

Voting Rights History [edit | edit source]

- By 1856: Universal white male suffrage^[1]
- 1870: The 15th Amendment is passed and prohibits restricting suffrage based on race^[2]
- Early 1890s: Jim Crow Laws passed to revoke African-Americans right to vote^[3]
- 1920: Women are given the right to vote^[4]
- 1965: The Voting Rights Act passes; African-Americans are given back the right to vote^[5]

What Can be Found in the Records [edit | edit source]

For more information about how Voter Records can help your genealogical research see United States Voting Records.

Voting records often contain:

- Name
- Birth place
- Residence
- Years living in city, county, state
- Whether naturalized, date, court

How to Find Voter Records [edit | edit source]

Most voter records were kept on the county level (for New England states this should be town level). To see what FamilySearch has for your county (town) of research follow these steps:

- Go to the FamilySearch Catalog[@] and in the place field type in Florida
- Go to United States, Florida
- Once there, click on "Places within United States, Florida"
- Select the county that contains your town of interest
- If FamilySearch has voter records for your county, they will be under "Voting Registers"

FamilySearch Catalog – Place within Subject Search

The screenshot shows the FamilySearch Catalog interface. The top navigation bar includes links for Family Tree, Search, Memories, Indexing, Activities, and Temple. Below this, a secondary bar highlights the 'Catalog' tab among other options like Records, Images, Family Tree, Genealogies, Books, and Wiki.

On the left, a 'Refine your search' sidebar is visible. It contains sections for 'Search by:' (with links for Place, Surnames, Titles, Author, and Subjects), 'Search for:' (with links for Call Number and Film/Fiche Number), and 'Availability:' (with radio buttons for Any, Online, and Family History Center). The 'Subjects' link is selected, and the search term 'Alabama voting' is entered in the search box. The 'Update' button is highlighted.

The main content area displays 'Search Results for FamilySearch Catalog' with options to 'PRINT' or view the 'Catalog Print List (0)'. A list of 30 search results is shown, each representing a county in Alabama with its corresponding voting registers. The results are as follows:

Why isn't there a name field?

Indexed (or transcribed) data is used to search for specific records. However, many records have not been indexed, so it is not possible to search for names in these records yet.

The search feature on this page lets you browse all images on FamilySearch, including unindexed records. This means you could find documents that may not appear in traditional searches!
