

Boost Your Biz | Level Up Your Genealogy Services with Storied Syllabus

Session Description:

Explore how Storied's features can help professional genealogists provide enhanced, custom services to clients, making your work more efficient, detailed, and profitable.

Agenda:

- Features of Storied® and StoriedBook™ Studio
 - Storytelling
 - Group Collaboration and Client Engagement
 - Relationship Tagging
 - Story Organization and Categorization
 - Efficient Workflow with Storied®
-

1. Features of Storied and StoriedBook Studio

- Key features of Storied and StoriedBook Studio
-

2. Storytelling

- Easy story writing format
 - Recipe format
 - StoryAssist
 - Writing prompts
-

3. Group Collaboration and Client Engagement with Storied

- Feature Explorations: Use collaborative groups for shared family projects.
 - Application: Using group functionality to involve clients directly in the research and storytelling process.
-

4. Relationship Tagging in Storied: Mapping Complex Family Dynamics

- Feature Exploration: Relationship tagging to capture non-familial connections.
 - Application: What relationships can add to the family narrative?
-

5. Story Organization and Categorization in Storied and StoriedBook Studio

- Storied Feature Exploration: Organizing stories and filtering options
 - StoriedBook Feature Exploration: Story tagging, categorization, and search functions
 - Application: Organizing client stories by themes, eras, or family branches
-

6. Efficient Workflow with Storied

- Feature Exploration: Storied for research and documentation management
 - Application: Citation management
-

Resources

- Affiliate Program
 - <https://storied.refersion.com/affiliate/registration>
 - YouTube Tutorials
 - https://www.youtube.com/@storied_social
 - Storied Certified
 - <https://storied.teachable.com/courses/>
-

Presented by:

Heather Haunert, hhaunert@storied.com

*All features and functionalities demonstrated are subject to Storied's terms of service and may require appropriate subscription levels.