NGS MAGAZINE ARTICLE INDEX

The NGS Magazine article index is a searchable PDF file organized in reverse chronological order. To locate authors' names or specific keywords within titles, use the Find feature in the edit menu on a PC or Mac, or use the command keys Ctrl+F. The text of the articles is not searchable in this index.

The index includes all features, columns, tributes, and NGS conference articles with repository information published in NGS Magazine between 2005 and 2023. It does not include NGS announcements, volunteer and donor lists, awards, nominations, book notices, or software reviews. Find those items by checking the table of contents of individual issues. The article index will be updated annually.

NGS Magazine began as the NGS Newsletter in 1975. It became NGS News Magazine in 2000, and the title was shortened to NGS Magazine in 2008. All issues from 2005 to date have been digitized in the archive (<https://www.ngsgenealogy.org/magazine/archives>) and are available only to NGS members. Issues before 2005 are not in the archive but are held in many libraries.

For information on other membership benefits and becoming an individual or family member of the National Genealogical Society, visit <https://www.ngsgenealogy.org/member-benefits>. The NGS administrator for each society/organizational member has access to NGS Magazine, as explained at <https://www.ngsgenealogy.org/society-and-organization-members>.

NGS thanks the team who contributed to the compilation of the NGS Magazine index: Deb Cyprych, Lizzy Ahrens, Ron Hodges, and Michelle Novak.
