Staircase

Jessica could have never imagined the blessings that were in store as she and Hermana Fernanda Guerrero stood at the bottom of a flight of stairs in South Salt Lake City. The smell of smoke was so heavy that we didn't want to climb the stairs to two more apartments. Thankfully the Spirit told us to climb the stairs. We knocked the door on the left and the mother was very rude. We knocked on the door to the right... and knocked... and knocked... and knocked. And a young woman answered the door as we spoke, the door behind us opened and we feared she would try to dissuade her neighbor from talking to us but she apologized. In the next 6 months, Gaby got baptized, then Giovanni got baptized, then we all went to conference together. We eventually found out that Gaby was planning to commit suicide as we knocked and knocked and knocked at her door but the Lord's plan was perfect- as soon as the Spirit helped us see past the smoke.

Flooded Bathroom

In Wyoming, we had a habitual problem with one of our bathrooms. We came home to the water being turned off one day and washed our hands with ice cubes. At dinner we came back to the apartment and it turns out we had left a sink running and with the water repaired the sink overflowed. We took the time to clean up and no longer had time to drive to where we had planned. We agreed to drive closer and ended up taking a wrong turn so at 8pm we ran into a mother and daughter we had met earlier standing outside. They had to move to California that night and hadn't started packing. They had just finished praying for help when we showed up (against all of our plans).

Rico's Baptism

A missionary's dream- a phone call telling us a family had gone to their ward and
